TAB?

Loveland Public Library's Teen Advisory Board (or TAB) is for local middle + high school students who are interested in making a difference at their library. TAB members play a crucial role in:

- Planning + marketing + running teen events
- Assisting with volunteer projects in the Teen Hangout
- Creating a welcoming + safe environment for other teens at the library

TAB membership is a commitment of time.
TAB meetings are every other week for 45 minutes.
Members must attend at least one meeting per month, either virtually or in person.

Members will be able to earn service hours, volunteer, and have a direct impact on the Teen Hangout at the library.
